

Confession for Healing

I am the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus. My righteousness came by faith in the finished work of Jesus, not by my own works. My righteousness speaks and declares that I am holy ground, the temple of the Holy Spirit. My righteousness is eternal. I am not a sinner getting rid of sin. I am the righteous resisting temptations. I am healed. I was healed at the cross by the stripes of Jesus. Jesus has already taken my infirmities and bore my sicknesses. If Jesus took and bore them, I need not bare them. I have been healed since I was saved. My healing is eternal. Nothing can change that. . I am not the sick trying to be healed. I am the healed resisting symptoms of infirmity and disease. I have been bought with a price, I will therefore glorify God in my body. Sickness is an unholy enemy trying to stand on holy ground, a trespasser on private, sacred property and a thief in the temple of the Holy Spirit.

God has sent His word and healed me and delivered me from all of my afflictions. His promises are medicine and healing to all my flesh. The anointing of the Holy Spirit has also been sent to heal every part of my being, emotional and physical. The same Holy Spirit Who raised Jesus from the dead quickens my mortal body. No plague will come near my dwelling because I abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Jehovah Rapha is my covenant healer, and with the stripes of Jesus I was and am healed. SICKNESS LEAVE MY BODY IN JESUS NAME.
